Nauvoo Lodge Rooms Ready to Shelter Summer Guests

Just in time for this year's camps and reunions, the eight rooms on the second floor of the Nauvoo Lodge addition are finally finished, furnished and ready for guests. In fact a couple of the rooms have sheltered guests already.

The finished rooms include two dorm-style rooms with six bunk beds each, one room with two queen-sized beds, one handicap room with one queen bed, two rooms with one queen and two bunk beds, one room with a single queen-sized bed, and an infirmary.

Resident caretakers Penny and Tim Tinsley have been working hard to clean up the construction messes and get everything ready for the summer season. The last month or so has been exhausting and sometimes

Some eager guests already are enjoying the comfort of camping in at Camp Nauvoo.

Outreach Retreat Guests Learn to See With New Eyes

Seeing with New Eyes was a wonderful learning experience and the people were so welcoming and friendly! It was my pleasure to give a testimony at the closing service and I felt God's presence among us. I am hoping other congregations will jump on the bandwagon and host more events such as this. -- Dana Nuckols, Hannibal Congregation

A Job or A Ministry?

The things you are passionate about are not random, they are your calling.

-- Fabienne Fredrickson

- If you're doing it because no one else will, it's a job. If you're doing it to serve the Lord, it's a ministry.
- If you're doing it just well enough to get by, it's a job. If you're doing it to the best of your ability, it's a ministry.
- If you're committed to staying with it, even when it means letting go of other things, it's a ministry. If you quit because no one praised you or thanked you, it was a job.
- If you stay with it even when no one seems to notice, it's a ministry. If you do it because someone says it needs to be done, it's a job.
- It's hard to get excited about a job. It's almost impossible not to get excited about a ministry.
- People may say "well done" when you do your job. The Lord will say "well done" when you complete your ministry.
- An average church is filled with people doing jobs. A great church is filled with people involved in ministry.
- If God calls you to a ministry, don't treat it like a job. If you have a job in the church, give it up and find a ministry.
- God doesn't want us feeling stuck in a job, but to be excited, fulfilled and faithful in a specific ministry.

It was an awesome event, with members of our extended church family coming from as far north as Waterloo, IA and as far south as Hannibal, MO, in attendance.

The Good Spirit was evident as 66 guests gathered in Moline Friday evening, April 13, for fellowship and a delicious meal of baked ham, scalloped potatoes, and all the trimmings.

Saturday got off to an early start with Marlene and Lyle Brim leading morning devotions at 7:30 a.m. followed by brunch and a day full of activities. After closing worship we headed home filled with a renewed spirit and fresh outlook, ready to bring ministry to each of our unique communities in Christ.

Seventies Dennis and Pam LaRoque of City Center Ministries served as retreat directors. Mission Center Invitational Minister Pat Reaves coordinated the event.

Great News & Then Some

Karla Enright of Davenport was recognized by the Bettendorf School District for 25 years of service.

Emily King of Galesburg graduated with high honors May 27 from R.O.W.V.A High School. She plans to attend the University of Iowa in the fall.

Tyler Billings of Hannibal graduated from LaGrange University with a Bachelor of Science Degree in accounting.

Nicholas Howell of Hannibal graduated this spring from Western High School.

A baptism service will be held June 10 at 11 a.m. at Galesburg Community of Christ. The congregation enjoyed a glorious Easter with 95 members, friends and family coming to worship, share breakfast and hunt Easter eggs.

The Davenport Congregation is planning an outing to see a Quad City River Bandits game on June 25 at 6 p.m. A recent family night at the church featured its very own Kitchen Band. Band members included John Ballantyne, Cameron Ballantyne, Rick Enright, Tom Irons, David Grapengeter, David Schneckloth and Mike Crotty.

Vacation Bible School for children age 3 through those who just finished fifth grade will be held Sunday, July 29, through Thursday, Aug. 12, 6:15 to 8:15 p.m. at Cedar Rapids Community of Christ.

Pat Reaves, Jackie Johnson, Danielle Nelson, Celeste Colone, Chris McQuitty and Beverley Lindburg of Moline Community of Christ attended the Church Women United's annual breakfast in May at Trinity Lutheran Church. The program focused on homelessness in the Quad Cities.

Maquoketa Community of Christ hosted the 289th Farmers Creek Sunday School Convention, Iowa's oldest continuing religious organization, on April 29. Three loyal members from Savanna are making the long drive, via Clinton, to attend church until the new Savanna bridge across the Mississippi opens.

Hannibal's Hootenanny has been postponed due to a scheduling conflict with the musicians. "We will be sure to let everyone know as soon as we can put something together."

frustrating with things almost finished but lots of last-minute odds and ends to be done. We finally got the hot water working this week and finished the new electric main, thanks to help from Kent LeVan, who made six long trips from Cedar Valley Grove Campground to Nauvoo to help with the connections.

At this point the original Camp Nauvoo expansion project approved four years ago is finished and the costs are pretty close to the estimate that was approved. Money has been set aside for the elevator, which will be added next year. We have high hopes to have enough additional contributions to finish the first floor rooms next winter. The RV group was able to get two classrooms in the basement functional although rough. We anticipate they will continue to work on the basement over the next couple of years.

The six tiny houses will remain on the RV pads for one more year. We were not able to do the underground utilities needed to move them. We anticipate doing that work next fall.

Position

maintenance and light physical labor, use an online reservation system, provide visitor orientation and insure a safe camp environment. They also must be able to work effectively with a team of volunteers as Camp Nauvoo moves into the operational stage of the lodge expansion project.

People from different religious traditions come to Nauvoo to explore the roots of the Restoration, particularly members of the many churches that trace their roots to the church founded by Joseph Smith Jr. This offers significant opportunity for Community of Christ to practice for our guests what we believe about hospitality.

The position will remain open until June 15, 2018. Send a resume and cover letter to:
