

Friends of the Cedar Valley-Nauvoo Mission Center Virtual Reunion 2020,

Below is a list of classes that will be offered as of today. Please note, if you have a desire to teach a class, something you are passionate about, it's not too late to let me know. Just contact me and share what class you would like to teach and we will go from there. We can always make room for additional classes as we are only limited by our imagination.
