Cedar Valley-Nauvoo Mission Center

Something to think about...

God's Grace

Unmerited favor – something given freely, not earned through human effort or merit. Have you accepted God's grace to you? Have you given grace to others?

Were you there???

The word is out. A good time was had by all at the retreat at Camp Nauvoo on Valentine's weekend. Friendships were renewed, new friends were made, games were played, (there were stories of a never-ending game of Holey Board, and a Champion who polished off his opponents quickly), classes, singing, competition, and spiritual experiences. Thanks go out to the Bengel/Baker cooking crew and Dana and Toot for the wonderful Valentine's dinner. Thanks go to Robin Linkhart, who came from Colorado, and to Evelyn Dustin. Big thanks also go to Pat and Randy Reaves. Pat came up with a ton of activities that appealed to all ages. Thanks to all who did campground chores and to Dawn for her work preparing for and cleaning up after events at the campgrounds. Approximately 40 people were in attendance.

I am happy to report that Evelyn Dustin did not suffer any lasting effects from her fall and trip to the ER.

Coming Up

The next scheduled get together at Camp Nauvoo is Reunion in June.

From Gaelane Rosinski

This year we continue our commitment to care for others and offer support and hope by collecting warm blankets (baby blankets to adult throws) for families staying at Ronald McDonald house in Iowa City. These are generally taken to the hospital during the day when they have a family member who is a patient at the University of Iowa Hospital. Please contact Gaelane at grosinski1125@gmail.com for further information on how you can participate.

Information for Shout the News

I am requesting information to share about things your congregation is going to do, information about how it went, photos of events captions included, etc. Please send these items to me via email at anita.edsall@gmail.com by the 15th of the month, with the hopes of publishing the newsletter on the 20th.
